

Beauty

By Mindi Meltz

Hidden Door Press, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 211 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . At once a story and a poem, Beauty carries the reader through a fluid dream of interconnected moments, intimate and rich with longing. A lonely writer seeks inspiration through a job caring for injured wildlife in a remote northern wilderness. When a fellow researcher, an arrogant and fiercely independent hunter and tracker, begins to encounter her on secret trails, his animal nature draws her into a sudden obsession that takes her by surprise. Though he becomes her lover, he remains ever elusive and invulnerable to deep emotion. Just as she seeks the trust of the wounded birds of prey she handles -- trying to be gentler or braver, trying to disappear -- she practices stalking a man's secret heart. Used to being a loner herself, she is now forced to confront the longings in her instinctual body, fear of her own power, and the many painful paradoxes of being human. Her stories of animal survival, hunter and hunted, become little dreams between real interactions, underlining the endless tension between approach and retreat, intimacy and freedom....
