Isaiah xlii, 6. Mr. President, Members and Friends of the American Colonization Society: In accepting your most kind invitation to appear before you this evening and address you upon the occasion of the Seventy-Second Anniversary of the founding of the Society, permit me say, in all true humility, that I am profoundly conscious that an honor so great should have found a resting place upon a worthier head than mine. Who am I that I should stand in the place filled in former years by men, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose? And yet, that I may strengthen my heart before entering upon my task, may I venture to plead in excuse...
