

A Saturday Child

By Titing Sudjana Titing Binti Omon

Xulon Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 98 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in. A simple yet profound story of our Mighty God reaching into the life of an Indonesian village girl who chose to follow His paths of righteousness. With Gods gifting, she has lived through much hardship with thanksgiving. - Ron and Ellen Ritchey Titings faith continues to impact others as she partners with International Disaster Emergency Service, offering help and hope to earthquake victims in Indonesia. Demonstrating Gods love in practical ways often softens hearts for responding to the gospel, as expressed by the messages of thanks shared in Titings story. - Nancy Jett, IDES Vina escaped from a family scheme to marry her to a grandfather when she was 11. Through a series of God events she came to live with our daughter and her family. They helped her learn to read and she is now in Jr. High School. While she was preparing for her elementary school equivalency test, we tried to encourage Vina with a promise to take her to Java to meet Titing when she passed. We knew Titings life story would encourage and challenge her. It did. We believe it will do...
